geerhardus vos has been called the father of reformed biblical theology during his 39 years as a professor at princeton theological seminary he achieved the reputation of a theologian whose biblical insight is without equal the full impact of his exegetical labor has been realized only in recent years geerhardus vos was a professor of theology at calvin college 1888 1893 and then a professor at princeton theological seminary 1893 1932 he was ordained in the presbyterian church in the usa this book includes all of his extant letters including recipients abraham kuyper herman bavinck b b warfield j gresham machen henry beets and ned stonehouse also includes a bibliography of his work and four of his poems the sword a song of the nativity kerstfeest gebed and the magnificent he was probably the best exegete princeton ever had benjamin b warfield once told louis berkhofer about their mutual friend geerhardus vos abraham kuyper was so impressed with vos's academic ability that kuyper offered him a faculty position at the free university of amsterdam when vos was only twenty four years old before vos was thirty both william h green and herman bavinck urged him to come teach at their respective institutions j gresham machen said that if he knew as much as vos he would be writing all the time john murray believed that vos was the most incisive exegete in the english speaking world in the twentieth century cornelius van til considered vos the most erudite man he had ever known richard b gaffin jr proclaimed vos the father of reformed biblical theology notwithstanding such acclaim among these and other leading reformed theologians and his teaching at princeton seminary from 1893 to 1932 vos was increasingly marginalized during his own lifetime in geerhardus vos reformed biblical theologian confessional presbyterian danny olinger tells the story of vos s life and analyzes the theological contributions of vos s writings olinger further details vos s significant influence upon the orthodox presbyterian church and westminster theological seminary despite not joining either one the aim of this book is no less than to provide an account of the unfolding of the mind of god in history through the successive agents of his special revelation vos handles this under three main divisions the mosaic epoch of revelation the prophetic epoch of revelation and the new testament such an historical approach is not meant to supplant the work of the systematic theologian nevertheless the christian gospel is inextricably bound up with history and the biblical theologian thus seeks to highlight uniqueness of each biblical document in that succession the rich variety of scripture is discovered anew as the progressive development of biblical themes is explicated to read these pages the fruit of vos 39 years of teaching biblical theology at princeton is to appreciate the late john murray s suggestion that geerhardus vos was the most incisive exegete in the english speaking world of the twentieth century
