since its beginning and during periods of great transformations movie going for both men and women was akin to going to a fashion parade before the explosion of digital technology and its enchanted world access to fashion was only accessible on the big screen fashion and style became reachable for the masses through cinema and with the genre of the fashion film this continues today focusing on a number of crucial films and directors from the silent era to the present this study will offer for the first time an in depth exploration of the interaction between fashion and italian cinema the study however will privilege the golden age of italian cinema especially the crucial decades of the 1950s and 1960s during which through the marriage of fashion and film italian fashion and style were launched globally through the lens of fashion the study will revisit the films of some of italy s most important film makers such as antonioni fellini visconti and others and films as old as mario oxilia s silent rapsodia satanica 1917 to luca guadagnino s i am love 2009

the position taken in this volume is that domestic off campus study can be just as powerful a transformative learning experience as study overseas and that domestic programs can equally expand students horizons their knowledge of global issues and processes their familiarity and experience with cultural diversity their intercultural skills and sense of citizenship this book presents both the rationale for and examples of study away an inclusive concept that embraces study abroad while advocating for a wide variety of domestic study programs including community based education programs that employ academic service learning and internships with the growing diversification regionally demographically culturally and socio economically of developed economies such as the us the local is potentially a doorstep to the planet and presents opportunities for global learning moreover study away programs can address many of the problematic issues associated with study abroad such as access finance participation health and safety and faculty support between lower costs the potential to increase the participation of student cohorts typically under represented in study abroad the lowering of language barriers and the engagement of faculty whose disciplines focus on domestic issues study at home can greatly expand the reach of global learning the book is organized in five sections the first providing a framework and the rationale for domestic study way programs addressing administrative support for domestic vs study abroad programs exploring program goals organization structure assessment and continuous improvement and considering the distinct pedagogies of experiential and transformative education the second section focuses on semester long faculty led programs featuring examples of programs located in a wide variety of locations from investigations into history immigration culture and the environment through localities in the west and the lowcountry to exploring globalization in l a and new york section three highlights five short term faculty led programs while each includes an intensive immersive study away experience two illustrate how a 7 10 day study away experience can be effectively embedded into a regular course taught on campus the fourth section on consortium programs describes programs that are either sponsored by a college that makes its program available to consortium members and non members or is offered by an independent non for profit to which institutions send their students the final section on community engagement and domestic study away addresses the place of community based education in global learning and provides examples of academic programs that employ service learning as a tool for collaborative learning focusing on issues of pedagogy faculty development and the building long term reciprocal relationship with community partners to co create knowledge the book is intended for study abroad professionals multicultural educators student affairs professionals alternative spring break directors and higher education administrators concerned about affordably expanding global education opportunities increasing concerns over the effects of climate change have heightened the importance of accelerating investments in green growth the international energy agency for example estimates that to reduce carbon dioxide emissions by 50 percent by 2050 global investments in the energy sector alone will need to total us 750 billion a year by 2030 and over us 1 6 trillion a year from 2030 2050 despite global efforts to mobilize required capital flows the investments still fall far short bloomberg new energy finance argues that by 2020 investments will be us 150 billion short from the levels required simply to stabilize co2 emissions for the east asia and pacific region alone the world bank study winds of change suggests that additional investments of us 80 billion a year over the next two decades are required multiple factors affect green investments often rendering them financially not attractive private investment flows therefore depend on public sectors interventions and support as in many countries public sector resources are scarce and spread across many competing commitments they need to be used judiciously and strategically to leverage sufficient private flows many governments however still lack a clear comprehensive framework for assessing green investment climate and formulating an efficient mix of measures to accelerate green investments and are unfamiliar with international funding sources that can be tapped to address this challenge the world bank with support from ausaid conducts the work on improving the financing opportunities for green infrastructure investments among its client countries this activity attempts to identify practical ways to value and monetize environmental externalities of investments and improve the promotion and bankability of green projects this research report as a key step in this activity provides a structured compendium of ongoing leading initiatives and activities designed to accelerate private investment flows in green growth it summarizes current investment challenges of green projects as well as proposed solutions financing schemes and instruments and initiatives that have set the stage for promoting green growth the results of this work are intended to benefit the international community and policymakers who are seeking to deepen their knowledge of green investment environment in addition it is hoped that this work will be useful to practitioners including fund managers and investors seeking to have a better understanding of current trends global initiatives and available funding sources and mechanisms for financing green projects
